Building HR-influence
through practical client tools.

The HR Influencer Workshop

What is the HR Workshop?

We've taken our highest impact consulting and HR influence tools from our experience working with and as HR leaders across 20 industries and put them in an intensive 2-day program supported by 3-months of HR focused coaching support and resources.

This program is designed for HR influencers who are:

- Strong HR knowledge experts but find it challenging to influence inline leader-mangers to make the necessary people and culture shifts.
- Time-crunched and would benefit from high impact HR influence tools that quickly builds powerful business partnerships.
- Great HR executors who are now learning how to achieve greater results through executive influence and strategic business thinking.
- Pushed and pulled in so many directions and need to find a new way of prioritizing time and effort and planning HR business projects.

A combined program leveraging the insights of senior HR leaders with practical consulting & change impact.

This is a combined program offered by Allen Leigh Consulting and Lighthouse NINE Group. Allen Leigh Consulting has been providing unique workshop facilitation and team support since 2010. Lighthouse NINE was founded in 2006 and supports individuals, teams and organizations as their 'trusted advisors' increasing confidence and unlocking unexpected potential.
