

NEW MANAGER BOOT CAMP

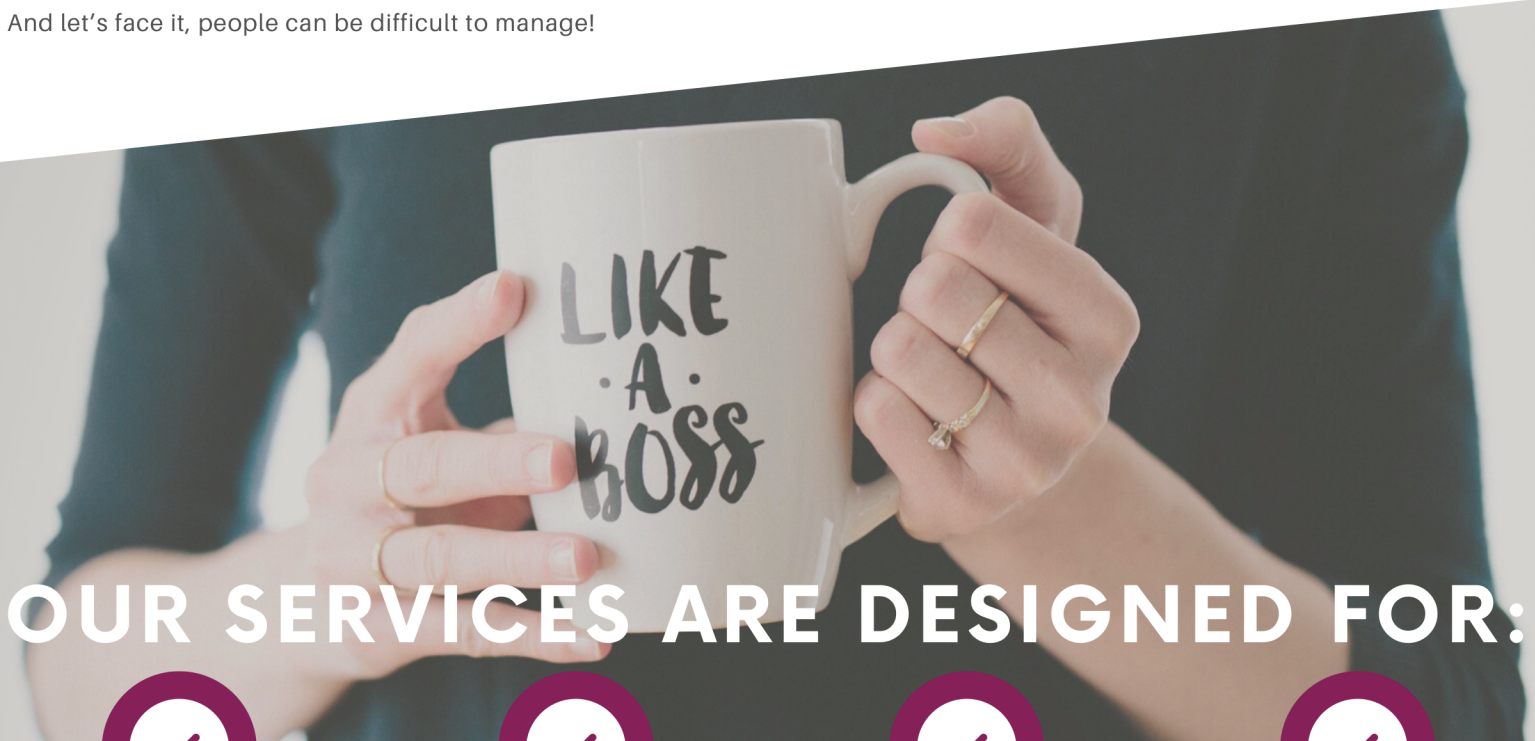

EQUIPPING NEW MANAGERS & SUPERVISORS WITH A PRACTICAL TOOLKIT DESIGNED SPECIFICALLY FOR FIRST TIME LEADER-MANAGERS

Congratulations, you are a new manager!

Now what? Moving from an individual contributor to a first line leader-manager can be a daunting task. Where you were once solely responsible for your own contribution, you now have ownership over a group's deliverables.

Having worked with hundreds of new managers over the last 15 years, we have curated a practical toolkit to help first time leader-managers hit the ground running with some fundamental basics.

And let's face it, people can be difficult to manage!

OUR SERVICES ARE DESIGNED FOR:

RECENTLY PROMOTED HOME-GROWN LEADERS who are strong in-line contributors, now tasked with driving results through cross functional projects & team efforts

PROFESSIONAL CONTRIBUTORS (IT, FINANCE, HR)

who wear multiple hats in addition to their core tasks & have taken on greater management responsibilities

OFFICE MANAGERS OR ADMINISTRATORS

who are tasked with increasing HR & leadership responsibilities & want to feel more confident in their role & abilities

FRONT LINE SUPERVISORS OR TEAM LEADS

who are responsible for the day-to-day management of their respective team or production area

“ I have been to many of these, but this was the most useful and practical training I have ever attended. ”

“ I can't believe the positive changes and shifts I am seeing in the manager. The difference is notable. ”
